Upon serious consideration this day had of the better safeguard and defence of this Collony. It is ordered ordayned and declared by the Grand Councill (nemine Contradicente) that all and every person and persons now in this Collony except such as are members of the Grand Councill or Officers attending the same shall appeare in armes ready fitted in their severall Companies according to the list now given in at the time and place appoynted by their severall Commanders for the better informing them in the use of their Armes and the other exercises of military discipline in order to a due preperation against any suddaine invasion if any such should happen. And that whatsoever person or persons (except before excepted) shall in contempt hereof willfully absent him or themselves from their duty and attendance as is afore directed such person or persons for every offence shall be severely fined or punished as the said Grand Councill shall judge Convenient unless a sufficient excuse for such their absence be showne and allowed. And hereof all commanders and other Officers of all and every the Companies now raised in this Province are by the said Grand Councill required to take notice and returne the names of all such absents as aforesaid if any such should happen to the Grand Councill at their next sitting after the makeing of such default. And it is further ordered and ordayned by the said Grand Councill that every Captain or other Commission Officer of a Company shall have power by himselfe by a note under his hand to command all or any Smith or Smiths now in this Collony or hereafter to come in the same whether freemen or servants to worke up and fitt all and every Gun or Guns which he shall find in his Company not well and sufficiently fitted for service. And whatsoever Smith or Smiths shall disobey or unnecessarily prolong the performance of such directions or if a Master shall deny his servant being a Smith to observe the same such Smith or Smiths or Master of such servant upon complaint thereof made to the Grand Councill shall be severely punished for his or their contempt hereof.

For as much as of late there hath been a great neglect in the due observance of the Watches in this Towne whereby the safety of this Collony is very much hazarded for the prevention whereof for the future it is ordered by the Grand Councill that Thos Thompson Marshall of this Province shall take a list of all the persons in this Collony as they are modellized in the Watch and accordingly shall give notice to every person the time when he is to watch or leave a note at their house or houses or there declare the same to the Master or overseer of such person as is to Watch And if it happen that any person or persons shall really be sick as that he is altogether incapable of performing his duty in the Watch then the said Marshall shall give notice to the next mentioned person on *the said Lyst and who are in health to watch that Night that soe the number of five men may be preserved entire to Watch every night.

And forasmuch as those ¶sons inhabiting in the outward plantacons are putt to a necessity to watch their plantacons as well as the Towne therefore that the s^d Watches may be more equally ballanced; It is also ordered by the said grand Councill, that in every revolution of the Watches those who dwell in the Towne shall watch twice and those who are in the outward Plantacons shall watch but Once.

And it is further Ordered, Ordeyned and declared that whatsoever ¶son or ¶sons having notice as is aforesaid shall hereafter neglect him or themselves from his or their duty of watching at the appoynted time and place at Charles Towne as aforesd such ¶son or ¶sons for every such offence shall forfeit & pay the summ of five shillings sterl. to be levyed by distress for the publick use of this Collony, but in case the s^d ¶sons soe offending be not able to satisfye the said fine of five shillings then such ¶son shall be severely punished. Or if any Master or Masters shall deny hinder or neglect to send his Servant or Serv^{ts}. when notice is left with him as aforesaid; such Master or Masters for every such offence shall severally forfeit and pay the summ of five shillings for every Serv^t. soe neglected to be levyed by distress for the publique use of this Collony: And that the said Marshall for his labour and paines therein shall have the sum of thirty shillings or the value thereof ¶ Month for soe long time as he shall be soe imployed, to be paid, by the Inhabitants of this Collony proporconably.

The Grand Councill takeing into their serious consideracon how the inhabitants of this Province may be reduced into the best posture for the defence of the same, & whereby they may most easilie maintaine their safety from any suddaine or unexpected invasion have resolved and it is ordered by the Grand Councill afores^d.

That two great Gunns be mounted at New Towne for the better defence thereof which said two Gunns and twelve pounds of powder be delivered to Mr. Richard Conant, he giving a Rec^t. to Coll: West for the same

That all and every the Inhabitants of this Province doe forthwth well and sufficiently fix up their Armes and make them fitt and ready for service, but if it shall happen that any Armes be soe defective as they cannot be compleatly fixed without the helpe of the Gunn Smith, then such person whose armes they are doe forthwth repaire to the Gunn Smith at Charles Towne and allow him such reasonable assistance as he shall absolutely stand in need of for the fixing of such defective armes whether it be with fire Cole or otherwise which said Gunn Smith being soe assisted as aforesaid and having paym^t. tendred is hereby required imediatly to sett about the same and that he doe interpose noe other worke till such armes be compleatly fixed and finished.

And forasmuchas Experience hath rendred the use of Bandelieres to be as well unsafe for keeping of Amunicon as altogether inconvenient upon any Marsh in this Countrey and more slack upon any occasion of service it is also ordered by the Grand Councill that every person in this Province above the age of sixteen yeares under sixty doe forthwith furnish himselfe with One Catous Box conteyning twelve cartiarages at least before the last day of July next whereof all Masters of families are to take care to furnish his Serv^{ts}. with Catous boxes, or allow them sufficient time to make them, and if it shall happen that any Master of a family shall faile herein such Master shall forfeitt and pay the sune of two Shillings and six pence for every Catous box that shall be wanting in his family through his neglect after the last day of July aforesaid but if the neglect shall happen to be found in any Serv^t such serv^t. soe fayling shall lye by the neck and heeles at the head of the company wherein he is lysted.

That if any person or persons at any time or times hereafter receive any intelligence (from the relacon of any Indian) of the approach of an enemy towards this place such person or persons to whome such relacon is given doe imediately bring the said Indian to any one of the Grand Councill (who is nerest) who upon such examinacon if he finds any probability of truth w^{ch} may necessarily require an Alarum is forthwth. to dispatch the said Indian or Indians to the Govern^r. with his apprehensions of the matter and in the meane time give speedy notice thereof to the Master of the Ordnance that a publick Alarum may be given by firing two of the greatest Gunns at Charles Towne Upon which Alarum all and every the Inhabitants now in this Province and who are able to beare Armes doe dispose themselves in manner following viz.

The severall families of M^r Maurice Mathews, M^r Stephen Bull, M^r Nicholas Carterett, and M^r Henry Brayne residing in Ickerby plantacon being about seaven men, M^r John Gardner One, George Cauty two, M^r Amos Jefford five, M^r Tho Ingrum One, Cap^t: fflorence ô Sullivan two Cap^t: George Thompson two be they more or less doe (upon every such Alarum) repaire to the said Amos Jeffords upper plantacon to the Westward of the said Thomas Ingrum and there remaine under the comand of M^r Maurice Mathews, and Cap^t: fflorence ô Sullivan his Assistant in order to the defence of that passage, and further to doe according to such rules and Instruecons as from time to time shall be transmitted from the Grand Councill to the said Maurice Mathews during that service./

And the severall families of Cap^t: John Godfrey about twelve men M^r Edward Mathews fower, Coll: Joseph West five, M^r Clutterbuck One M^r Henry Hughes One to repaire to the plantacon now in the possession of the said Cap^t: John Godfrey and there remaine under the comand of the said Cap^t: Godfrey and the said Henry Hughes his Lieut. the better to maintaine the leading path there according to such Orders and Instruecons as they shall from time to time receive from the grand Councill on that behalfe

And that all other the Inhabitants of the Collony of Charles Towne (except the Negroes in the Govern^{rs} plantacon who are there left to defend the same being an outward place) repaire to Charles Towne with their Armes and Ammunicon well fitted as aforesaid there to receive such Orders as by the Grand Council shall be thought most convenient.

And that all the Inhabitants on the other part of the River called the Oyster Poynt doe repaire to the plantacon there now in the possession of Hugh Carterett Cooper and being soe imbodyed doe march forward to the plantacon now in the possession of M^r Thomas Norris or M^r William Morrill which may be thought most safe and usefull for that designe under the comand of M^r Robert Donne, there to remaine and exercise such Orders and Rules as the Grand Council shall thinke fitt to be prosecuted for the better safety of that part of this settlement./

And that all the Inhabitants in and about New Towne doe repair to New Towne aforesaid & there remaine under the comand of M^r Richard Conant according to such Rules and Instructions as the said Richard Conant allready hath and from time to time shall receive from the grand Council for the better perservacon of the safety of the said Towne./

And that upon the appearance of any Topsayle Vessell One Great Gunn be fired at Charles Towne upon which all the ffreemen within the Collony of Charles Towne aforesaid are forthwith to appeare in Armes in the said Towne, and that noe person or persons whatsoever (except the Pilott) doe adventure or presume to goe a board any Vessell or Vessells which hereafter shall come into this harbour (without the Governo^{rs} speciall lycence) before the Master of such Vessell or Ship hath been with the Governo^r.

And as all and every the aforemenconed ¶ticulars are necessarily conducive to the Good Govern^t. and the safe managem^t. of the affaires of this Province, and the secure settlem^t. thereof without which all ingenious industry is but vaine, And because repentance is too late when miscarriages happen in these cases; The Grand Council have therefore thought fitt to make this declaracon; And all and every person and persons in this Province are hereby strictly required and injoynd to take notice of and observe all and singular the p^rmisses, and every part thereof as they would not be questioned as offend^{rs}. ag^t. that sweet peace and tranquility soe much desired and earnestly laboured for in the said Province./

¹The pages upon which were recorded in a haphazard manner fragmentary proceedings of the Grand Council of South Carolina during the period from 1677 to 1680 were found bound in with the complete journal of the Grand Council from 1671 to 1676. It is not known now whether there was any more nearly complete journal kept or not. The original volume has been rebound at least once, and, therefore, it cannot be positively stated whether these pages upon which these fragmentary records were made originally formed a part of a volume or were merely bound in with the other when that was rebound. Certain internal evidence tends to show that the latter was the case, and that the pagination now to be seen in the full journal, the fragmentary journal and on some leaves containing some fragmentary records of the office of the Secretary of the Province that were likewise bound in with the journals was made after the whole had been bound together.
